Feedback from the students

1. One thing I learned today was.... The meaning of English literature, which helps us to be matured emotionally, to comprehend or understand.
2. One thing I liked about today's session was... It encouraged me to give my best to score and learn English with full dedication, interest and of all love for the subject.
3. One thing I didn't like/wish had been done differently was... None.
4. One question that I have is... This book helps more of Internet for gathering authentic information in English literature.

1. One thing I learned today was... that English can contribute to our maturity growth.
2. One thing I liked about today's session was... that the teacher was very frank, friendly, approachable-looking. The words she spoke also were heart-warming and encouraging.
3. One thing I didn't like/wish had been done differently was... I wish the teacher can tell us how to write in the exams, the pattern ~~pattern~~ for the test and for the exam were not also mentioned.
4. One question that I have is... that how can I score well in my English subject since I have taken it as an honour subject, I want to improve my writing skills as well and I want to inquire.
5. The instructor spoke: how to do it.
