

Report on Lecture

The Theme: "A Holistic Vision of the Human: Intersecting Science and Philosophy"

A Lecture was organised on the theme 'A Holistic Vision of Human: Intersecting Science and Philosophy' by the Department of Philosophy, Lady Keane College on 6th May, 2023 at 9.30 a. m. in the Seminar Hall of the College. The Lecture was delivered by Rev. Fr. Dr. Augustine Pamplany, Dean, School of Inter-disciplinary Studies, Little Flower Seminary, Aluva, Kerala. Earlier the Principal of the College. Dr. D. K. B. Mukhim formally welcomed the speaker and the participants of the programme. The speaker presented, at length, different areas where Philosophy has its close affinity with science. Consciousness was the main area which was largely covered in his 45 minute address. The discussion that followed benefitted the students in general as there were many questions on spirituality and its relation with philosophy as a discipline. 55 students of the Department of Philosophy and teachers from the Department of Philosophy, Lady Keane college, also teachers from the other colleges of the town participated in the event. Jenika Karlor, Assistant Professor, Department of Philosophy, Lady Keane College, proposed vote of Thanks. The total budget of the event was Rs. 8000/- (Eight Thousand only).
