Reports from the Teacher of Sociology Department:

An online programme on Career Opportunities in Law was conducted on 25th July, on the initiative of Ms. B.J.Sawkmie, Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology, on GOOGLE MEET

<https://meet.google.com/bba-apio-xvg>.

The Resource person was LIZZIE PHANWAR, LLM, NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITY, JODHPUR; ADVOCATE. VISITING LECTURER, BANSARA INSTITUTE OF OPTOMETRY 2019- (MEDICAL LAW AND ETHICS), RESEARCH CONSULTANT, INDIAN SVHOOOL OF BUSINESS (2018) The Target group was SOCIOLOGY HONOURS students of 2nd, 4th and 6th SEMESTER. The total number of participants was 93 students and 4 teachers.

The programme provided an in depth knowledge of the field of law and the many career opportunities associated with it; details of law institutions available in the country and beyond, the modes of application, how to enrol, prepare for entrance exams for CLAT, PSUs Judicial service, and the like;

The resource person also threw light on the scholarships offered- special scholarships for minorities, NEC merit scholarships for North East students, for professional and technical courses, etc. The programme sought to bring to students' attention, the legal issues related to marriage, divorce, child custody, alimony, women's plight, etc., the access and rights to legal redresses and other related issues.

The programme evoked a lot of interest among the students as well as teachers, which was evident by their constant interaction through queries, comments and observations. In fact, the session spilled over beyond the allotted time duration. It was a rewarding experience for many.
