

DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY

Programme Outcome

Being a student of philosophy they develop critical thinking and the skill of analysing. Enable them to understand and fulfil the moral, social and political responsibilities as a member of the society. At the same time the students also understand the need of thinking beyond a particular religious tradition to which they are born and practice. They are able to broaden their approach towards others religions; Right/Ideal attitude towards other religion is also developed.

Course Outcome:

Course Name	Course Outcome
Paper I- Epistemology and Metaphysics	Students will be introduced to the basic concepts in Philosophy, so that they are able to think logically and understand the nature and scope of the subject.
Paper II- Logic	To instill critical, logical thinking in students.
Paper III-Social and Political Philosophy	To introduced the concepts in Social and Political philosophy so that students may understand and fulfil the responsibilities as a citizen.
Paper IV- Indian Philosophy	Students when introduced to the Indian Classical Traditions, both Orthodox and Heterodox, would understand and appreciate the Vedic/Classical traditions of India.
Paper V-Western Philosophy	Students will be introduced to the Western Classical Philosophical traditions i.e. Empiricism, Rationalism, Realism and Idealism.
Paper VI-Religion	Students will understand the need of thinking beyond a particular religious tradition to which one is born and practiced. Students will be able to broaden their approach towards other religions and develop Right/ ideal attitude towards other religion.
Paper VII-Ethics	Students when introduced to the basic moral concepts and traditional theories of moral philosophy will develop the right/ ideal practice and character building.
Paper VIII-Philosophy of Mind	Students will be familiarised with the basic concepts in the field of Philosophy of Mind and Classical theories in Philosophy.