

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

Programme Outcome:

The expected outcome of the course is to equip students with the concepts, principles, theories and processes studied in Political Science, so as to facilitate their career choices and employment. The course is aimed at shaping the students' perception and outlook on social, economic and political environment of India and beyond.

The course also seeks to develop the analytical abilities, observational skills and decision making faculties of the students so that they will be able to face different challenges of life.

Course Outcome:

Course Name	Course Outcomes
Psc. 01- Political Theory	Students will be familiarised with the different dimensions and the contemporary relevance of different concepts and theories, which would be applied in studying other papers.
Psc. 02-Major Political System	The paper studies the legal provisions, ideology, institutional arrangements and the socio – economic background of four of the most prominent states in the world. The paper aims at equipping students with the knowledge and critical understanding of different political systems and institutions in the world. Students are expected to become better citizens who are well aware of the different political systems of the world and who have a different outlook of life.
Psc. 03-Indian Political System	Students will be shaped as citizens who are aware of the ideals and philosophies of the Indian Constitution, Constitutional rights and duties, governmental institutions, centre - state relations and electoral politics in India. Students will also be made conscious of the social, cultural, economic and political environment that affects politics in India, at the national as well as regional level.
Psc. 04- International Politics	Students will be familiarised with different theories on International Politics, and to make them aware of the different units and actors that operate in the International system which determine the domestic and foreign policies of a nation state. The students are also expected to be able to grasp the operation of various international organisations, and how the national interests of nation states are attained and defended. Students are also expected to understand power politics and relations among states, while also making them aware of the different characteristics and parameters of national power
Psc. 05-	Students will be equipped with the fundamental understanding of political

Western Political Thought	theory to shape the philosophical and ideological foundations of the students, as theorised by different thinkers. Students are expected to be able to study the different theories and concepts which and compare them with the contemporary social, economic and political realities.
Psc 06-.Public Administration	The paper aims at familiarising the students with the processes and the institutional arrangement of the government or administration. The expected outcome is to make students aware of different administrative principles and the paradigm shift in Public Administration, methods of recruitment processes for public administrative personnel, parliamentary control over the administrative machinery and to understand how public institutions are managed.
Psc. 07- Government and Politics in North – East India	The expected outcome of the paper is to enable students to understand the political developments in the North – Eastern Region, and to facilitate their understanding of the different social, cultural and economic processes that influence politics in North – East and the significance of the same. The paper seeks to familiarise students with the dynamics involved in the interaction between the North – Eastern states and the Indian Union.
Psc. 08.- International Organisations	The expected outcome of the paper is to familiarise students with the workings and functioning of International Organisations, especially the United Nations and enable them to understand the different issues taken up by the UN.