A Report

As per the curriculum of the Bachelor of Tourism and Travel Management (BTTM), the 7th Semester is an internship semester where students have to undergo a 16th weeks Internship Programme in different hotel and tourism related organisations in different tourism related organisations like hotels, travel agencies, tour operations companies, event organisations, tourism departments and agencies etc.

This year the internship programme started on 1st July 2022 and completed on 30th October 2022. The Department has successfully placed the students at various organisations including renowned Five Star Hotels in the country. The 12 students of 7th semester were placed in different organisations for their internship which include Hotel Leela Palace, Bangalore, Indiatourism Shillong, Meghlayan Age, Polo Orchids, Umroi Airport and others.

Objectives:

Internship programme is designed to give exposure to students studying professional courses to inculcate necessary skills and experience hands on operations and management of the different field and areas of the industry.

1. Internship programme gives students platform to see and observe the overall working environment of hotels, tour agencies, event organisation, car rental companies and other related organisations.
2. To give students an opportunity to have extensive practical learning by physically involving in all the operational activities of the organisation.
3. To do extensive study on the specialised areas by conducting surveys and case studies.
4. To complete the necessary requirement for a bachelor degree.

Learning outcome:

1. Students learnt the basic operational aspects of hotel management in different departments and other travel organisation.
2. They develop skills required for operating guest houses, homestays, travel agencies etc.
3. They acquired knowledge of managing an accommodation sector and tour or adventure companies.
4. They learnt interpersonal skills and ways of dealing with customers.
5. Students learnt the necessary information on setting up enterprises or start ups.

The internship was successfully completed by all students and evaluation was conducted for the three papers:- BTM-710, BTM-711 and BTM-712 during the End Semesters NEHU Examination of November 2022.

The Students were placed in different organisations covering skills and expertise in hospitality, tour operations and executions, events planning and organising, research and surveys and other aspects of tourism operations.
