

On the 26th of February 2024, a team of students from Lady Keane College participated in a Skit Competition hosted by the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) at Vivanta Meghalaya, in Shillong as part of Financial Literacy Week. The event aimed to promote financial awareness and educate the youth on essential financial literacy topics.

The skit, performed by a diverse group of students from various departments, focused on the theme of financial literacy, addressing common financial challenges and solutions. Through the engaging storyline and relatable characters by Suhana Nongrum, a first year student from the Zoology department of the college, the participants highlighted the importance of making informed financial decisions.

The participants in the skit, listed in order of performance, were:

Chinglunmawi - B.A. 6th Semester, English Honours

Lamngaithem Haokip - B.A. 6th Semester, English Honours

Suhana Nongrum - B.Sc 1st Semester, Zoology Honours

Deibiang Kharjahrin - B.A. 6th Semester, English Honours

Anushya Pebam - B.A. 4th Semester, English Honours

Phidalin Jyrwa - BTTM 6th Semester

Dalumlin Khongji - BTTM 6th Semester